TARRAS SCHOOL

Nameste

Term 3 has come to an end and once again the school year will enter its last quarter on Monday 17th October. Term 4 will be jam packed with exciting learning experiences - seedling sale, theatre trip, science roadshow, Harold and Pip, camps and our school nativity. Now that rules have been removed regarding the spread of covid-19 students will once again look to sharing their classroom and learning with the community. Keep your eyes here for those events which the community can participate in.

Produce stall sales were at a high during the Queens Memorial Weekend. Students made lavender bags and cut the daffodils they planted last year. Students and staff are thinking of planting more annual flowering bulbs to have a wider range available in Spring 2023. A big thank you to anyone who supported the stall by purchasing any of these items. The annual seedling sale will be on Saturday 29th October with a variety of seedlings available for purchase.

Tarras Birdwatchers have been guiding students through the use of "e bird" and tracking birds seen on the school grounds. Students are very excited by these catch ups and are already on the hunt for lost feathers to learn how to identify them next time Pete and Andy come into school. Topflite donated a school set of bird identification booklets which students took home. Students have suggested access to binoculars would support their school time twitching. If you know a source or would be willing to donate a pair collecting dust at your own home, the students would be most excited. Tarras Birdwatchers can be found on Facebook if you are keen to join their adventures. In 2023 students will have the opportunity to work towards a special badge related to bird watching and bird care supported by the efforts of the Tarras birdwatching group.

It is exciting to hear of new students moving to the area or getting ready to start their school journey at Tarras School. If you have a pre-schooler at home and would like to come and visit Tarras School to check out your local school contact Rachelle on principal@tarras.school.nz. This is the same for any students in year 1 - 8 who currently travel outside the area to attend school. Support your local school - less travel and less students per class.
