TARRAS COMMUNITY CHURCH

Anglican led services at the Tarras Church will resume once we are at Covid Level 1 – hopefully we will be there in time for the service in July.

To help with Damon’s timetable Anglican services will now be on the first Sunday of the month at 11am. Hopefully this suits everyone.

Damon has been reaching out to everyone on the Anglican Parish roll during the lockdown with his weekly e-letter. If you would like to continue receiving this please email the Parish office at ucang@calledsouth.org.nz

TARRAS SCHOOL

Kia Ora

The students have transitioned back into school amazingly well. Teaching staff were excited to see them all back at school looking healthy and well rested. Many students shared their home learning with staff during the Covid-19 lockdown and enjoyed the variety of tasks they were set. If you do not follow Tarras School on Facebook, search us out and see what learning went on.

Students have been creating some marvelous art work related to emotions over the last 2 weeks at school, staff have shared sophisticated picture books and had discussions around colours which relate to feelings and how we act when we feel different emotions.

The garden to table project has been back into full swing already and the students have made delicious scones, soups and sausage rolls - these tasks bring in so many of the National Curriculum skills - maths, science and reading plus many of the social skills required by young people in the world today.

Although all our Education Outside The Classroom (EOTC) and sports events have been postponed for now we are looking forward to exploring Tarras on some adventures linked to our topic work of exploring New Zealand. The students have created some magical artwork on native NZ animals which we hope to share with the community when we are able to have more visitors on site.

Our toilet block renovation was completed just as Lockdown arrived so there was much excitement as the students and staff returned to our shiny, modern toilets. The students have also started entering school by the entrance corridor, which I assume was used many years ago - would be grateful for any information related to this. The BOT are arranging an official blessing for the renovation and more details will follow inviting people to come and visit. FOTS will be reframing the old school and class photos to display in our newly refreshed hallway. Staff believe it is important for students to be aware of the people who have used the school before them, especially as some of those are still strong community members.

If you have a School Pool key from the 2019/20 swim season it is now time to return this to school. Contact Letitia at office@tarras.school.nz or 034452817 to arrange drop off and deposit returns.

Enjoy the start of winter
